LIVE

Celebrating the entrepreneurial spirit of Taranaki people, LIVE content is 100% local.

Quality Content

Printed in full colour, on glossy paper with top-level writing, photos and design from the region's best creative talent.

Target Market

Editorial is curated to appeal to active, vibrant, well-read Taranaki people with flair and a sense of fun.

Distribution

LIVE reaches far more New Plymouth people than any other printed medium, with 13,000 copies delivered every issue. Compare our print numbers, prices and quality to other options.

Our unique distribution system is designed to reach your target market — people with discretionary income. All copies are snapped up within a week or two of each publication date and passed around to readers' friends and family.

Half of New Plymouth homes ...

receive LIVE directly into their letterbox each quarter, as well as 90% of Oakura.

Our team delivers to letterboxes stating NO CIRCULARS etc, meaning you can get your message to discerning people without competing with screens of junk mail.

LIVE is delivered only in fine weather so that it arrives at each home in pristine condition.

In addition ...

- A copy goes into almost every hotel and motel room in the city to reach visitors
- 50 stockists around Taranaki, including the NP Airport, iSites, Centre City, district libraries and most cafes
- Recent issues available for free download at livemagazine.co.nz
- Social media posts highlight upcoming deadlines, publication dates, places to get a copy and timely articles you may have missed

Excellent Value - with more copies, bigger page sizes (so your ads are bigger too), and a higher editorial to advertising ratio, Live represents the best value print advertising in Taranaki.
